

General Palliative Care and Aged Care Resources and Information

The PA Toolkit website has now closed and the resources that could be found in this site have been moved or replaced with updated versions that you can use.

There are many different organisations that can offer you the same but updated information that was found within the PA Toolkit, you can find links to some of these information sources below.

If you are looking for information about	You could try
Practice evidence and clinical information for health and care providers working within the Australian aged care sector. palliAGED also provides palliative care information for older Australians, their families and friends who reside at home within aged care facilities.	palliAGED https://www.palliaged.com.au/
Providing palliative care and advance care planning for older Australians living in the community or within aged care. ELDAC website has guidance for healthcare professionals and aged care workers including five toolkits with resources to assist with legal aspects of care, to deliver care at home in the community, within aged or primary care and information to develop and sustain working partnerships between services.	ELDAC https://www.eldac.com.au/
Provision of palliative care for patients, information for families and carers, clinical and guidance on providing palliative care for healthcare professionals including community-based, primary care, and in specialist care settings.	CareSearch https://www.caresearch.com.au

If you are looking for information about	You could try
Locating palliative care services in your area, palliative care policies and national standards of care and information for healthcare providers, patients with palliative needs and their carers.	Palliative Care Australia https://palliativecare.org.au/
National quality standards or policies for all providers of age services across residential care, home care, and retirement living/seniors housing.	Leading Aged Services Australia https://lasa.asn.au/
Planning for future care and recording health care preferences for all older Australians living in the community, supported residential or within aged care.	Advance Care Planning Australia https://www.advancecareplanning.org.au/
Training and professional development opportunities within aged care, workforce development or managing accreditation or undertaking quality improvement.	Aged and Community Services Australia https://www.acsa.asn.au/
Grief and bereavement resources for clients, patients or residents in different languages and access to services or information for health care professionals on managing grief in contextualised environments.	Australian Centre for Grief and Bereavement https://www.grief.org.au/
Our health system, health programs, and resources that have been funded and developed by the Australian Government.	Australian Government Department of Health https://www.health.gov.au/
Programs and services provided by the Australian Government to support vulnerable communities within our populations including older Australians, individuals living with disabilities, and carers.	Australian Government Department of Social Services https://www.dss.gov.au/
Services and programs for veterans and their families including mental health, financial support, and accessing health care services.	Australian Government Department of Veterans' Affairs https://www.dva.gov.au/

