

Getting started with palliAGED resources

Choose the palliAGED resource to match your needs

Help to introduce new staff to basic concepts in palliative care

> palliAGED Introduction Modules

Resources to use as part of staff induction programs

> Tip Sheets for Nurses

> Tip Sheets for Careworkers

> palliAGED Introduction Modules

Trustworthy and practical palliative care support for experienced nurses

> Practice Centre Improving Practice

> CareSearch Nurses Hub

Support for clinicians prescribing medicines for an older person receiving terminal care

> Symptoms and Medicines

Support to improve nurses' clinical skills in palliative care

> Practice Centre Improving Practice

> CareSearch Nurses Hub

Resources to use as part of ongoing in-house education sessions

> Tip Sheets for Careworkers

> Tip Sheets for Nurses

> palliAGED Introduction Modules

Support to create evidence-informed guidance and policy documents for your organisation

> CareSearch Evidence Centre

> Clinical Evidence Summaries

> palliAGED Evidence Centre

Support to incorporate palliative care within the Aged Care Standards

> palliAGED In-Focus series

Trustworthy information for older people and their families

> palliAGED for the Community

> Patients, Carers, and Families booklet

Practical support for organising and conducting case conferences

> Case conferences for home care

> Case conferences for residential aged care

Practical forms and tools to assist you in providing home care

> Resource pack for home care

Practical forms and tools to assist you in providing care in Residential Aged Care

> Resource pack for Residential Aged Care

Palliative care evidence and practice information for the Australian aged care sector.

Digital and print resources are provided at no cost. Download and order from the order form.

palliaged.com.au/GettingStarted palliAGED is funded by the Australian Government Department of Health and Aged Care and managed by CareSearch, Flinders University. February 2023

